

2010 PAHRA
“Person of the Year”
Nomination Form

The PAHRA “Person of the Year” is special recognition of the accomplishments of a person who is either affiliated with a PAHRA member agency (staff member, board member, or person affiliated under a contract) or a person outside of PAHRA's membership who has made a significant positive impact on housing and/or community (ies) within the jurisdiction of the agency and/or the state.

Only active PAHRA member agencies may nominate the person under the signature of its executive director. The person nominated can be from the nominating agency or from another member agency.

The emphasis in determining the award will be place upon the nominee’s achievements and involvement with one or more of the following:

- 1) Improving the overall quality of life in areas of education, recreation, and community development;
- 2) Providing attractive, safe, and affordable housing; and/or
- 3) Increasing the economic viability of people and communities via jobs, commercial and industrial development.

The Awards Committee will also give consideration to amount, type and quality of service that nominee has volunteered to PAHRA, state and federal organizations that champion the cause of housing and community and economic development.

The nominating entity must provide no more than two type written pages that describe the nominee's achievement's under categories 1, 2, and/or 3 above as well as his/her service to local, state or national organizations.
